FINAL JUDGMENT AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

This matter came before the Court on the Motion for Default Judgment filed by Plaintiff DISH Network L.L.C. (“DISH”) against Defendants Ahmad Al Shahman (“Shahman”) and Serverlogy Corporation (“Serverlogy”).

Having considered the submissions in support of DISH’s Motion, and the pleadings on file, the Court grants the Motion and finds:

DISH owns copyrights in the works that air on the following channels: Al Arabiya, Al Hayah 1, Al Jazeera Arabic News, Al Jazeera Mubasher, ART Cima, CBC, CBC Drama, Dream 2, Future TV, Hekayat, LBC, LDC, MBC1, MBC Drama, MBC Kids (a/k/a MBC3), MBC Masr, and Melody Classic (collectively, the “Protected Channels”).

Shahman owns and operates the East IPTV streaming television service. Shahan profits by selling East set-top boxes and subscription renewals that provide access to the East service including the Protected Channels. Shahman, without authorization from DISH, transmitted the Protected Channels and the copyrighted works that air on those channels to users of his East set-top boxes and subscription renewals in the United States. In doing so, Shahman directly infringed DISH's exclusive rights to distribute and publicly perform the works that air on the Protected Channels.

Serverlogy is a content delivery network ("CDN"), operated by Shahman, that profited by providing services and computer servers knowingly used by Shahman to transmit the Protected Channels on the East service. Serverlogy is ineligible for the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") safe harbor because it failed to appoint an agent for receiving copyright infringement notices, failed to respond expeditiously to remove or disable access to the Protected Channels, and failed to adopt and reasonably implement a policy that provides the termination of subscribers who are repeat infringers. Serverlogy refused to take reasonable measures to stop Shahman from using Serverlogy's services and servers to infringe DISH's copyrights despite receiving 10 notices of infringement, and permitted the infringement to continue for more than a year, including two months after Serverlogy was served with the complaint in this action. Serverlogy materially contributed to and is vicariously liable for Shahman's direct copyright infringement.

Judgment is hereby directed to be entered against Shahman on Count I of DISH's complaint for direct copyright infringement, and against Serverlogy on Counts II-III of DISH's complaint for contributory and vicarious copyright infringement.

Based on these findings, the Court Orders:

1. DISH Network L.L.C. shall have judgment against Ahmad Al Shahman in the total amount of $2,100,000, and judgment against Serverlogy Corporation in the amount of $600,000, with interest on these principal amounts according to the statutory rate pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a). These amounts consist of $150,000 for each of the registered, copyrighted works that DISH owns and that each Defendant willfully and maliciously infringed by transmitting without authorization on the East service;

2. Defendants and any of their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, or other persons, including all dealers, distributors, and retailers of East set-top boxes and subscription renewals, acting in active concert or participation with any of the foregoing that receives actual notice of the Order, are permanently enjoined from:
